GAP had a very busy March it being the month of the Pet and Animal Expo. GAP attends the three-day event every year. It is always very hectic but always a great success and this year was the best yet.

We had more volunteers than ever.

I gave them a handout about the type of questions people ask and what responses they should give and I congratulate everyone who helped.

All were so keen and well spoken and very professional and we had a huge response from the public.

All commented it was ludicrous greyhounds that go through the program have to wear muzzles.

I agree.

these should be exempt from the muzzle law. We are talking to all councils about this and hopefully we will be like GAP in Victoria and lose the muzzles.

I have been inundated with applications so I'm in the process of meeting with families to match them with the right dog.

It is just great to talk to the public these days about greyhounds as pets as they are all positive comments and all seem so encouraging and supportive of the program. It is great to see the program going forward every year.

I also have race greyhounds and am in full support that the race dogs should always be muzzled in public.

We take it very serious with the dogs and we always do supply all adoption greyhounds with a muzzle.

But when you have greyhounds with no chase drive or get on well with cats and small dogs,
