AGRA RUN OF THE MONTH AWARD – NOVEMBER 2006

“SHIOKAZE”

Shiokaze winning at Capalaba (David Brasch Pic)

AGRA's Run of the Month for November 2006 has been awarded to Shiokaze for his brilliant performance in recording the scintillating time of 25.58 at the Gold Coast. The run broke the 457 metre record of 25.60, jumping to the front early he quickly set up a winning break over the quality field in the Best 8 Dinky Di Web Designs Stake on the 29th of November.

The Ron Ball trained sprinter has shown extraordinary speed and ability since making his debut at the Gold Coast back in May last year 2005 after a couple of months off he recorded a fast winning time of 22.64 at his third start over the 401 at the Gold Coast. The Gold Coast record is his second this year after setting new figures at Albion Park in July over 395 metres running 22.55.

Shiokaze broke the previous Gold Coast 457 record held by Pororoca the first winner of the AGRA Run of the Month for his outstanding effort in winning the Cranbourne Cup in January. However this particular record at the Gold Coast (25.60) has stood since July 2004 a considerably long time these days.
